Title: Comical Ali

Ann: Now the latest news... The former Iraqi Information Minister is holding a press conference in Chatham, Illinois. We join the conference in progress.

Reporter 1: Sir Sir! We hear reports that the Chatham Jaycees Sweet Corn Festival is happening this Thursday, Friday & Saturday. Do you have any comments?

Minister: LIES all LIES. There are no festival in CHATHAM.

Reporter 2: But sir we understand that Hot Property, The Land Sharks, F5, and The Lost Boys are all scheduled to appear.

Minister: Again you go with the lies! If the Imperialists send their F5's over our Hot Property we will shoot them down! If any boys are lost they are lost because they lost themselves out of fear of our forces!

Reporter 1: Sir do you deny the allegations that Miller Lite is presenting a special Thursday night concert by Deluxury?

Minister: It's malicious propaganda spread by the Imperialist Jaycees!

Reporter 2: What can you tell us about the huge tents, the hot buttered Sweet corn , the steak sandwiches, the BBQ pork?

Minister: If there is any such food in this town, I can tell you that it has already been eaten. ...and it was good.

Reporter 1: What about the reports of a chili cook-off, cow chip throw, and a children's area?

Minister: That is your story... the story of your nation. My nation believes in the truth

Reporter 2: helicopter rides, Sir do you deny the existence of helicopter rides at the 30th annual Chatham Sweet Corn festival?

Minister: There have not been... nor will there ever be helicopters over our airspace.

Reporter 1: Sir what about the tour-de-corn bicycle rally?

Minister: Tour-de-corn is something put together by our friends in France, and we are most proud of that. Thank you France. Everything else is a lie.

Announcer: Chatham Jaycees 30th Annual Sweetcorn festival this Friday & Saturday with a special pre-festival Deluxury concert this Thursday presented by Miller beer!

Minister: LIES! DON'T LISTEN! LIES... LIES LIES... (fades off)
